Yes, you have my permission to include my name in the list of 2019 FLIWC judges and publicize this fact.

No, I would prefer not to have my name included on any publicized list of 2019 FLIWC judges

The basic responsibilities of FLIWC and its judges are as follows:

FLIWC

- Room arrangements for two nights, travel and meals will be covered by FLIWC. This will be determined on an individual basis as we have judges who reside close to the judging site as well as those who will travel long distances. The specific items covered for each judge are outlined in the "Judges' Personal Account" form (copy enclosed).
- Breakfast, lunches and refreshment breaks will be provided for all judges on each of the judging days.
- Dinner will be provided for all judges for April 13, 2019.

THE JUDGES

- Each judge agrees to be present at the judging location, Holiday Inn Plaza, Rochester on Saturday, April 13 and Sunday, April 14, 2019 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. and conduct himself/herself in accordance with the competition regulations.
- No judge will hold Camp Good Days and Special Times, Inc., its' board, staff, or volunteers, Rochester Riverside Convention Center, the catering staff, the hotel or management responsible for any accident, damage or injury to persons or property due to the amount of alcohol ingested during the judging. Each judge bears the responsibility in this respect and can be excused at his/her discretion should they feel any effect from the consumption of the wine samples; Breathalyzer equipment is available for use upon request.
- Your signature also constitutes your agreement with the terms outlined in the "Judges' Personal Account."
